

Wegmans School of Pharmacy

INTERESTED IN THE PHARMACY PROFESSION?

Dr. David McCaffrey, assistant dean of student affairs in the Wegmans School of Pharmacy at St. John Fisher College, will discuss the present and future of the profession of pharmacy and how to prepare for admission to a Doctor of Pharmacy program.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 14

NOON - 1 P.M.

MCC EMPIRE ROOM BUILDING 3 ROOM
209

Lunch will be provided.

Learn more about Fisher's 2+4 Pharmacy Early Assurance Partnership agreement.

To register for the event, please visit go.sjfc.edu/pharmacy-mcc/ or contact Transfer and Graduate Admissions at (585) 385-8064 or grad@sjfc.edu.

Walk-ins will be welcome!

Dr. McCaffrey received his B.S. in Pharmacy from the University of Maryland, Baltimore and, after a brief career as a community pharmacist, continued his pharmacy-related studies at The University of Mississippi, completing both his M.S. and Ph.D. in Pharmacy Administration (Pharmaceutical Marketing and Management). He was a faculty member in the Department of Pharmacy of Administration at The University of Mississippi from 1996 through 2013, and joined the Wegmans School of Pharmacy in 2014.