

MITCHELL LEVY

EDUCATION

Doctorate in Counseling Psychology and Human Systems, Florida State University, 1988

Master in Counseling and Guidance, Boston University, 1983

Bachelor in Psychology and Sociology, Boston University, 1982

Dr. Levy is the current Vice President of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at Atlantic Cape Community College in Mays Landing, New Jersey. During his tenure at Atlantic Cape, he has also served as the Vice President of Student Affairs and Dean of the Cape May County Campus, as Vice President of Student Affairs and Branch Campus Manager, as well as the Dean of Students. Prior to his service at Atlantic Cape Community, Dr. Levy was the Executive Director of the Center for Counseling, Advising and Academic Support at LaGuardia Community College, and served as the chairperson for the College Success Program/Director of Counseling at the Grant Campus of Suffolk Community College. Dr. Levy's career is highlighted with various Counseling, Advising and Student Development administrative positions, as well as Faculty appointments at Long Island University, Passaic County Community College, Kean College, Fordham University, and Iona College. Professional service appointments include the NJ Council of Community Colleges Guided Pathways Planning Committee, National Center for Higher Education Risk Management Threat Assessment Consultants Group, and NYC Higher Education Task Force on Student Wellness and Anti-Bullying. Dr. Levy has co-authored the publication, "Academic and Student Affairs in Collaboration: Creating a Culture of Student Success."