

Sponsored by the MCC Institute for the Humanities and Division of Diversity, Equity & Belonging, this event examines the ways in which Title IX has shaped women's sports, educational opportunity, campus culture, and more.

Tuesday, October 11, 2022

Photo Exhibition & Reception

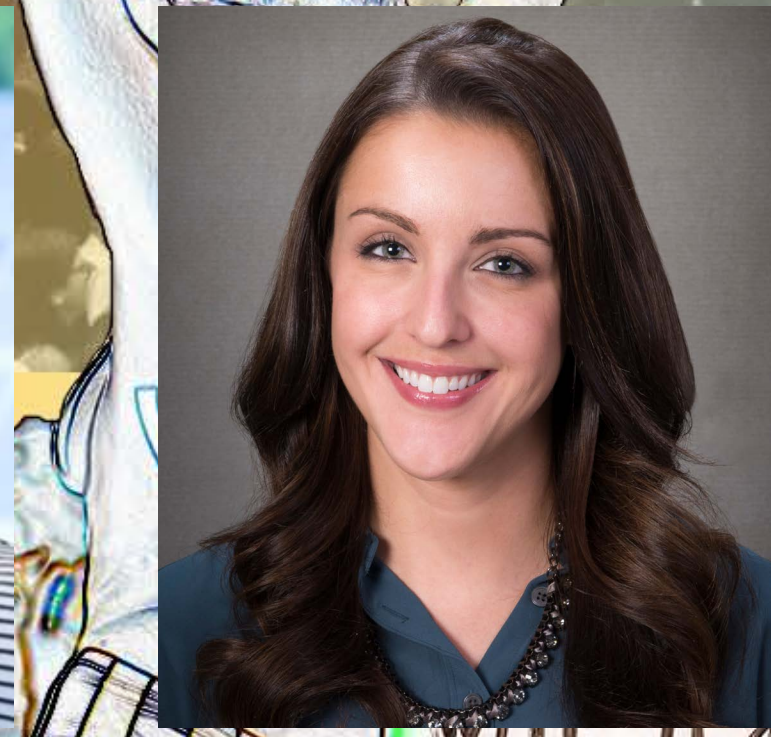

5:00–6:00 pm

Panel Discussion 6:00–7:30 pm

MCC Downtown Campus

The History & Future of Landmark Legislation

Free and open to the public. To register, go to:
<https://sites.monroecc.edu/humanities>
www.facebook.com/humanitiesMCC

Iris Zimmermann
Olympic Fencer
Founder, Monarch
Leadership Group

Tamar Carroll
Chair, History
Rochester Institute of Technology

Bethany Gizzi
Professor, Sociology
Monroe CC

Shannon Glasgow
Director, Title IX
Monroe CC
Panel Moderator

