

MCC SPRING RECESS COURSE IN GREECE:
ATHENS & THE ISLANDS

APRIL 10-19, 2008

Philosophy 106: The Birth of Western Wisdom On-Location

Humanities Elective: 3 Credits or Audit

Taught by Professor Matthew Hachee: Office 5-556

Phone: (585) 292-3274

E-mail: mhachee@monroecc.edu

TEN-DAY TRIP

Tour of Athens, Delphi, Mykonos, Ephesus (ancient Greek site in Kusadasi, Turkey), Patmos, Rhodes, Heraklion, Santorini, and other important sites in the history of ancient Western philosophy.

Total for Students $2,466; for Adult Students (over 23) $2,961, if paid 99 days before the departure; $ 125 late registration fee will be added to both prices after December 31, 2007. Price includes the following: roundtrip airfare from Rochester, hotel with private bathrooms, continental breakfast and dinner daily; 3 meals daily during four-day island cruise; comprehensive tours led by licensed local guides, and more.

$95 deposit to EF Educational Tours due as soon as possible; total payment due by December 31, 2007. FOR APPLICATION BOOKLET SEE PROFESSOR HACHEE. You may register at EF Educational Tours online: eftours.com/student: Tour # 973212; or by phone: 1-800-665-5364. Also to earn 3 credits, or to audit, register at MCC for PHL 106-LO1 as soon as possible. You may also enroll in Professor Stasia Callan's English On-Location and earn 6 credits for both! See reverse side for information for ENG 106—On-Location In Greece.

This course focuses on the development of Western philosophical thought through close reading of the writings of important Greek philosophers such as the Pre-Socratic philosophers, Plato, and Aristotle. The required work for this three-credit course includes: (1) class attendance on campus (eight two-hour sessions before the trip; three two-hour sessions after the trip; (2) Reading and discussion of the assigned texts; (3) Journal writing before, during, and after the trip; (4) leading a discussion of a Platonic dialogue while on location; (5) one research paper; and (6) an oral presentation.

FOR AN AUDIT OF EITHER COURSE, OR BOTH, ONLY COURSE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED BUT NO COURSE WORK.

MCC SPRING RECESS COURSE IN GREECE:
ATHENS & THE ISLANDS

APRIL 10-19, 2008

English 106-LO1: Homeric Epics On-Location
Literature or Humanities Elective: 3 Credits or Audit

Taught by Professor Stasia J. Callan: Office: 5-520

Phone: (585) 292-3370

E-mail: scallan@monroecc.edu

TEN-DAY TRIP

Tour of Athens, Delphi, Mykonos, Ephesus (ancient Greek site in Kusadasi, Turkey), Patmos, Rhodes, Heraklion, Santorini, and other sites mentioned by Homer in The Iliad and The Odyssey.

Total for Students $2,466; for Adult Students (over 23) $2,961, if paid 99 days before the departure; $ 125 late registration fee will be added to both prices after December 31, 2007. Price includes the following: roundtrip airfare from Rochester, hotel with private bathrooms, continental breakfast and dinner daily; 3 meals daily during four-day island cruise; comprehensive tours led by licensed local guides, and more.

$95 deposit to EF Educational Tours due as soon as possible; total payment due by December 31, 2007. FOR APPLICATION BOOKLET SEE PROFESSOR CALLAN. You may register at EF Educational Tours online: eftours.com/student: Tour # 973212; or by phone: 1-800-665-5364. Also to earn 3 credits, or to audit, register at MCC for English 106-LO1 as soon as possible. You may also enroll in Professor Matt Hachee's Philosophy On-Location and earn 6 credits for both! See reverse side for information for PHL 106—On-Location In Greece.

The course work for 3 credits consists of reading Homer's The Iliad and The Odyssey and writing interpretive journal entries before the trip; eight two-hour classes before the trip to discuss the readings and lectures; on-location journal writing checked by the professor during the trip; one formal research paper (5-6 pages, typewritten double-spaced, documented in MLA Style) due after the trip. Three additional meetings after the trip to finalize the papers and hear oral presentations based on them. Travel Course Assessment essay (2-3 pages long, typed and double-spaced) due after all course requirements are met.

FOR AN AUDIT OF EITHER COURSE, OR BOTH, ONLY COURSE REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED BUT NO COURSE WORK.