The meeting was called to order at 12:00 p.m. The minutes of the November 5 meeting were corrected and approved.

SPEAK TO SEGA

- Ms. Howell requested feedback from students regarding their parking experiences this semester at St. Joseph's Garage. The MCC website has complete information on the fee waiver process for DCC students who have purchased the semester parking at St. Joseph's Garage and wish to receive a free Brighton Campus parking permit.
- Ms. Makovsky presented information on Adam Shephard, author of "Scratch Beginnings", as a possible motivational speaker.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Past Events

- Nicholle La Vann's November 10 presentation went well except that SEGA's cameras were not functional. Ms. Ginevra and Mr. Wilson will work together to ensure cameras are charged and functional in the future.
- Several SEGA members attended the Brighton Campus Media Fair to promote the Fall Ball.

NEW BUSINESS

Upcoming Events

- Fall Ball: A Night In Paris – Fri. November 19, 7 p.m.-12 midnight at the Brighton Campus. Fall Ball tickets may be obtained at www.monroecctickets.com. SEGA members are asked to arrive 30 minutes early for the event, and those who wish to help decorate and setup may arrive anytime after 10 a.m.
- Italian Day – Mon. December 6, 12-1 p.m. in room 4-013. Italian food, music, decorations and trivia.
- Everyone should start thinking of possible fundraising activities.

Damon Campus News

- Mr. Berg met with Monroe Doctrine representatives regarding coverage of DCC events.
- Ms. Ginevra submitted articles/information/photos to the MD about the Money Madness event, Fall Ball, DCC November Calendar, and Family Fun Nite. According to the Monroe Doctrine's bylaws, SEGA cannot have articles in the MD other than the SEGA Exchange. SEGA is working on assembling a writing team. The MD's last issue of the semester will be published November 29.

The meeting adjourned at 12:52 p.m.
