

ADV 164

Service-learning: advising for community engagement

November 5th 12pm- DCC 4034

Community engagement and your students! Learn what service-learning is, what it isn't and how service-learning has been integrated into course curriculum. The models of service, benefits to students, and examples of current projects will be included.

Come find out how to advise your students for courses being offered with service-learning components to them.