SPEAK TO SEGA

Ms. Wallace presented information on Jamie Nabozny, proposed speaker for Enough Is Enough Week. Funds are being contributed by various clubs and departments to cover the speaking fee. A motion was made by Ms. Velazquez and seconded by Ms. Martinez to approve $1000 towards Mr. Nabozny's speaking fee. Motion approved.

Ms. Wyant presented information on the Democracy Commitment Committee and requested SEGA's support and assistance publicizing events being held March 5 and 6 to promote voting and the democratic process; SEGA's consensus was affirmative.

Campus Ambassadors Club representatives Ms. Kemp and Mr. Baxter presented their constitution for chartering. SEGA will review the constitution and vote on it at next week's meeting.

A motion was made by Ms. Jeffers and seconded by Ms. Martinez to approve the amended amendments to the Honorable Women Club constitution and bylaws. Motion approved.

Ms. Jones presented a compilation of SEGA motions from the beginning of the academic year along with other documents to promote efficiency at meetings.

NEW BUSINESS

Ms. Velazquez announced a new initiative whereby all SEGA Coordinators and committee members will report to the Vice President of Governance.

SEGA members provided feedback regarding conference preferences for spring semester.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ms. Jones reported on the programming budget for the 2011-12 year, including funds spent thus far and funds remaining. A motion was made by Ms. Velazquez and seconded by Ms. Martinez to approve the report. Motion approved.

The food service waiver for the Soul Food Buffet on February 27 has been approved.

Ms. Ginevra reported on the SUNY Palooza lobbying effort being held in Albany on March 6.
