

11th Annual

Saturday, November 3, 2007

10am – 4pm

Monroe Community College

Brighton Campus, 1000 East Henrietta Road

Rochester Children's Book Festival

A Family Literary Event

Book Sales & Signings

Storytelling & Readings

Author Presentations

Kids' Arts & Crafts Center

Workshops

NEW

History Alive!

Ages 8 – 12

Starts at 10:45am

Step into the past at the Festival's first ever Tween Time. Chat with authors of historical fiction. See and touch the skull of a horse, a model of the Charlotte Lighthouse, a Civil War era musket ball. Try on a sailor's uniform from the Revolutionary War, decode the secrets hidden in a Slave Quilt & pass through Ellis Island. Be there when history comes alive!

Just for Teens

Grades 6 & up

Tackling Tough Topics

- 1:30pm James Howe
The Misfits, Totally Joe
- 2:10pm Minfong Ho
The Stone Goddess
- 2:50pm Ellen Yeomans
Rubber Houses

Free Admission

Free Parking

MCC Food Court

Presented by Rochester Area Children's Writers & Illustrators and Lift Bridge Book Shop, Brockport, NY (liftbridgebooks.com) with support from Rundel Library Foundation

www.rochesterchildrensbookfestival.org

585-671-0441

