

The Snowball Scholarship for Service-Learning Monroe Community College

Background

The Snowball Scholarship for Service-Learning was established at Monroe Community College in 2007 by Mary and John Seebach. The goal of the scholarship is to recognize good character and promote community engagement.

Scholarship Award

The Snowball Scholarship for Service-Learning will award $1,500 annually and may be awarded to one or more students. The scholarship award is applicable toward the fall semester at Monroe Community College.

Scholarship Criteria

Preference will be given to Joseph C. Wilson Magnet graduates.

Scholarship applicants must: 1) be a second year full-time student (for the following fall term) participating in the service-learning program with at least one service-learning course completed and plans to complete the required 200 hours for the service-learning diploma distinction; 2) demonstrate financial need; 3) have a minimum GPA of 2.5

Scholarship Selection and Application Deadline

Award selection will be made by the Snowball Scholarship for Service-Learning Committee. Applicants must file a FAFSA, and must complete the Snowball Scholarship for Service-Learning Application.

The Scholarship application must be returned to Susan Bender, Coordinator of Service-Learning, 228 East Main Street, Rochester, NY 14604 no later than April 1. Scholarship winners will be notified by May 1.

Note: The scholarship award will be presented in person to the selected student (s) at the Damon City Campus Appreciation Luncheon.
