

COURSE WORK IN THEATER

The Visual and Performing Arts Department offers a variety of courses and opportunities in theater. Studies include a solid background in liberal arts and training in theatre and production. Emphasis is on a broad range of skills including artistic, critical thinking, evaluation, planning and technical ability.

Theater Courses:

THE 110 Introduction to Theater
THE 111 Introduction to Technical Theater
THE 112 Fundamentals of Acting I
THE 113 Stage Makeup
THE 147 Oral Interpretation
THE 148 Voice and Diction
THE 190 Theater Rehearsal and Performance
THE 212 Fundamentals of Acting II

Schools to transfer to:

SUNY: Fredonia, Brockport; Nazareth College

Specific skills learned:

Acting, Oral Interpretation, Story Telling, Lighting Design, Scenic Design, Scene Painting, Costume Design, Stage Makeup, Stage management, Sound Design, Stagecraft

Full-time faculty:

Heather Fox • Larry Mandelker

Coursework enhancement activities available:

Fall Musical Production, Spring Comedy or Drama Production, Annual Children's Production