

Timeline for MCC's Self-Study and Evaluation 2013-2016

March 2013

- President appoints two Self-Study co-chairs

January 2014

- President appoints 14 steering committee members
- Provost and co-chairs choose self-study design: the “comprehensive model”

January 2014-March 2014

- Steering committee, provost, and director of planning nominate chairs of study teams and appoint study team members
- Steering committee submits self-study design to Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE)

April 2014

- MSCHE liaison, Dr. Ellie Fogarty, visits MCC to provide feedback on self-study design

June-August 2014

- Self-study design receives final approval from MSCHE

January 2015

- Study teams provide initial drafts to steering committee

February-March 2015

- MSCHE and MCC agree on selection of Dr. Quintin Bullock, president of Community College of Allegheny County, as Evaluation Team chair

April-May 2015

- Steering committee provides feedback to study teams on draft reports
- Study teams submit final drafts of their reports

June-August 2015

- Self-study report is reviewed by consultants, steering committee and co-chairs, and MCC senior leadership

September-October 2015

- Revised draft of self-study report is sent to MSCHE Evaluation Team chair for review
- Evaluation Team chair visits MCC to discuss the draft self-study and plans for team visit

November 2015

- Feedback collected from College community

December 2015

- Final self-study report submitted to Evaluation Team and MSCHE

March 2016

- Evaluation Team for reaccreditation visits MCC, March 13-16

April-May 2016

- MCC receives Evaluation Team report

June 2016

- MSCHE decision regarding MCC reaccreditation is communicated to College community