You’ll graduate ready to enter the job market or to continue your studies in a four-year degree program.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW
MCC’s Interior Design program combines a study of the creative process with the practical requirements of materials, space planning, and building codes. Emphasis is placed upon using a variety of tools, including drawings and computer processes to explore and communicate solutions to design problems. Projects addressing both residential and commercial needs are incorporated into the program to provide a broad understanding of the field of interior design. You’ll develop your creative vision while the strengthening the business and organizational skills you need to succeed in the field. You’ll take program electives that fit your goals—whether you want to transfer to a four-year program or begin a career after graduating from MCC.
