

Please join us!
Post Election Analysis: Coping, Understanding, and Expressing Yourself Following the Election

Presented by: Anthropology/History/Political Science/Sociology Professors

Lou Andolino, Joseph Scanlon and Nayda Pares-Kane

We all have thoughts and feelings about the election results, so now what?
Please join us for a post-election analysis. We will discuss the results of the election, what it means for our community, our lives, and learn how to better cope and express ourselves following the most important election in American history.

Tuesday, November 10, 2020
12:30 p.m. -2:00 p.m.

Join Zoom Meeting:

<https://monroecommunity.zoom.us/j/83902888027pwd=b3FycFdyVDNVaE1uR2xwQ3M5QmJBdz09>

Monroe Community College
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

This event hosted by PRISM Multicultural Center, Latino Empowerment Network (LEN), Global Education & International Services (GEIS), First Year Experience (FYE), and The Democracy Commitment at MCC.