

Presentation and Discussion:

Impeachment & the Constitution

What exactly is Impeachment?

What does the Constitution say?

Which Presidents have been impeached and why?

Why so much civil discourse amongst everyday citizens?

Join us as facilitator, Professor Karen Morris, and presenters, Professor Louis Andolino and Professor Joseph Scanlon from the Anthropology/Political Science/Social Science department, walk us through all of these processes and discussions on the Impeachment process and what our Constitution has to say about it.

Monday, February 3, 2020

12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Q&A immediately following from 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1, Room 108

Sponsored by Global Education & International Services, Latino Empowerment Network and First Year Experience.

Monroe Community College

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

