

SUNY Developmental English Learning Community Spring 2019 Regional Convening

Call for Proposals

Please save the date for the SUNY Developmental English Learning Community western regional convening, which will take place at the Monroe Community College¹ on Wednesday, May 22, 2019, from 9am until 3pm. Participating campuses include Finger Lakes Community College, Genesee Community College, Erie Community College, Jamestown Community College, Niagara Community College, Corning Community College, and Alfred State College.

Faculty and administrators are invited to present their own co-requisite/ALP “best practices” at the convening, which will take the form of a mini-conference. We are hoping to run a series of concurrent sessions, and follow that (after lunch) with focused workshop time.

Presentations and workshops should ideally be 45 minutes to an hour in length, but please reach out if you need more or less time. We want to be as inclusive as possible.

Suggested topics for presentations and workshops may include:

- Addressing non-cognitive issues
- Integrating reading and writing
- Active learning
- In-time remediation
- Backward course design
- Community/cohort building
- Administrative techniques

Those interested in presenting should email me directly at mfox@monroecc.edu with a presentation/workshop title and a brief description (no more than 250 words) by Friday, April 5, 2019. I will contact presenters directly to confirm proposal acceptance.

I will be sending out an official registration form for the conference shortly, and I look forward to hearing from you. Please call or email with any questions or concerns.

Thank you for your interest and involvement!
