

SUNY WELCOMES

INTERNATIONAL PRONOUNS DAY!

WEDNESDAY, OCT 17th
12:00 - 1:00 pm EDT

The first annual International Pronouns Day (10/17/2018) symbolizes the long-standing movement to provide basic human dignity to transgender and gender non-conforming populations. This webinar will provide an overview of contextual history, language, and inclusive practices to empower our communities.

Join the Live Webinar at:

<https://suny.webex.com/suny/j.php?MTID=m45634be36e42584660f556ace0ef9b7f>

Courtney D'Allaird M.B.A., M.A., is the founding coordinator of the Gender & Sexuality Resource Center at UAlbany and has done extensive work with college campuses across New York State in order to expand initiatives for LGBTQ+ student inclusion. Courtney works with college students in transitioning to campus life and provides interactive trainings, programs and class lectures across campus. Pronouns: They Them and Theirs. Courtney is a nationally certified peer educator and trainer for NCBI (National Coalition Building Institute), DASA (Dignity for All Students Act) and Safe Space/Zone development. Courtney is a trainer for the Anti-Defamation League's World of Difference Institute which works to combat bullying through Peer Education in K-12 across NY State. They currently serve on the board of Rainbow Access Initiative, is an Emeritus Board member of the Northeast LGBT College Conference Oversight Board from 2008-2018 and served as the Northeast Regional Rep for the Consortium of LGBT Higher Education Professionals from 2014-16. Courtney's expertise is cross-curricular stemming from Master Degree work in sociology, women's gender & sexuality studies and business administration.

To learn more about International Pronouns Day,
and register your campus, visit the following link:

<https://pronounsday.org/>

SUNY