

Bernabé Rico

Bernabé Rico shifts his career between film and theatre, working as a producer, director, writer and adapter.

All My Guardian Angels won the Shoestring Award in the 61st Rochester Int'l Film Festival, which will take place May 9 – 11, 2019

STUDENTS, FACULTY AND STAFF ARE INVITED TO ATTEND THE SCREENING OF THE SHORT FILM "ALL MY GUARDIAN ANGELS" (SPAIN, 2018) AND MEET MR. BERNABÉ RICO, THE FILM DIRECTOR & PRODUCER

THURSDAY, MAY 9TH
12:30 PM - MONROE A

The film is 15 min. long with English subtitles. It will be followed by comments and a Q&A period.

Madrid, Christmas 2009: a sports bag is abandoned in the middle of the street. Its contents undertake a journey of survival as the bag is handed off by nocturnal beings who, although overtaken by events, will serve as unsuspecting guardian angels.

This event is sponsored by the English & Philosophy Department, the Global Education and Int'l Services Office, the Humanities and Social Sciences Division, the Visual and Performing Arts Department, and the World Languages and Cultures Department.

Monroe Community College
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK