

Juan Martinez – Candidate for Dean of Academic Foundations.

Juan Martinez graduated with an M.S. and a B.A in English Education from Buffalo State College.

Juan is currently the Dean of Instruction at Bryant & Stratton College. In this role, he manages and oversees the daily operations of the Academic Department and Student Services by providing leadership and support for the faculty as well as for the academic and student support systems. He has had experience with implementing faculty development programs and initiatives, as well as with developing strong relationships with local school districts and community leaders and businesses.

In his role of Interim Dean of Students at Bryant & Stratton College, Juan has raised the average campus graduation rate of 36% to 44% over a three-year span through development of retention programs along with developing initiatives to improve student retention and advising.

In his role of Associate Dean of Instruction at Bryant & Stratton College, Juan developed, coordinated, and implemented programs and services to support instructors, including orientation and workshops, increased retention, and initiatives to improve programs and program outcomes.

Juan has taught several English courses and courses in Human Relations and the First year Experiences.

As stated in his cover letter, “I am a team player and believe that my background and administrative responsibilities as well as current workings in a multi-campus system position me as an ideal candidate for the Dean of Academic Foundations.”
