

International Education Week 2018

Rediscovering Fredrick Douglass: A New Glimpse Into The Life of An Extraordinary Man

Film Screening and Discussion with Educator, Delores Jackson Radney, and Co-Producers and Co-Authors, William Schwappacher and Tiana Stephens.

Fredrick Douglass was the most photographed man of the 19th century. He understood the power of images and the global impact of these images for his work as a human rights leader. Please join us for a discussion and encore screening of this documentary.

Thursday, November 15, 2018 • 11 am - Noon

PRISM Multicultural Center 3-108, Brighton Campus

Co-sponsored by

