

19-20 Job Opportunities on Campus Federal Work-Study

Applying for an on-campus Federal Work-Study job!

Federal Work-Study jobs give students an opportunity to earn money at a part-time job on campus during the academic year to help pay education expenses. A student's work experience can be fun, rewarding and can give students an opportunity to gain critical skills to improve marketability for future employment openings. Opportunities exist in most departments on campus. If you would like to work part time during your college career use the following list that provides you with the contact information for the MCC departments that employ Federal Work-Study students with on-campus jobs.

In order for students to create a professional impression and be better equipped when they are interviewed for a FWS job, we recommend that they prepare a resume and cover letter. You can visit the Career and Veteran Services office located in Building 3 Room 108 at the Brighton campus to get advice on how to create your resume and cover letter or go directly to their website at <https://www.monroecc.edu/depts/careercenter/career-services/> for more information and tips.
