Monroe Community College Chapter

The AAWCC— MCC Chapter, along with the Hospitality Department invites students, faculty, and staff to celebrate National Hispanic Heritage month with us at Food for Thought on Wednesday, October 27!

National Hispanic Heritage Month is traditionally celebrated from September 15 to October 15, and recognizes the influence and contributions of Hispanic Americans to the history and culture in our community. The AAWCC, with the assistance of the Hospitality Department has created a menu just for us that incorporates some delicious culinary influences:

(choose one of two entrées, dessert and beverage included)

Meat entrée option:

Beef Taco—stewed ground beef and onions, Salsa Verde, Cotija cheese, Cilantro, cabbage, lime and pickled red onion, with Arroz con Pollo (Puerto Rican Style)—stewed chicken and rice with Sofrito, sautéed vegetables and olives

Vegetarian entrée option:

Vegetarian Taco—stewed black beans and Sofrito, sautéed onions and peppers, Salsa Verde, Cotija cheese, Cilantro, lime, cabbage and pickled red onion, with Spanish Rice and Beans—flavorful rice with Pinto beans, stewed tomatoes, sautéed vegetables, green olives and traditional spices

Dessert

Tres Leches Cake: Vanilla flavored cake soaked in "Three Milks" and sprinkled with Cinnamon and toasted coconut

Beverage

Horchata: Mexican rice and nut drink flavored with cinnamon
