

Bridging Global Engagement to Local Action

June 11, 2018

10 am – 2 pm

- |                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| 10 am               | Welcome and Introduction, Christina Lee, Lead Curriculum Development, GEIS  |
| 10:15 am – 10:45 am | Keynote Speaker: Maria Engels, Higher Education Program Coordinator, MK Gandhi Institute for Nonviolence“Medicine to Hate”  |
| 10:45 am – 11:30 am | Matt Minarchek, PhD candidate in history, Southeast Asia Program at Cornell University “The Soul of the Tiger: Practical Ideas and Creative Inspiration for Bringing Southeast Asia into Any Classroom”                         |
| 11:30 am – 12:15 pm | Student Voices: Perspectives on International Learning through COIL and Lessons Learned from Two COIL ProjectsProfessor Christine McCoy, Universidad del CaribeProfessor Sherry Tshibangu, Monroe Community College |
| 12:15 pm – 1 pm     | Lunch   |
| 1 pm – 2 pm         | Advising for International Students, Meryll Pentz, Interim Assistant Director for GEIS, Admissions Counselor and PDSO   |