

WISH YOU WERE HERE

2021 PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE SERIES

JASNA BOGDANOVSKA | Palimpsest

Thursday, November 18, 6 p.m., Dryden Theatre

Through her global travels, Jasna Bogdanovska conceptualizes the environment from a humanistic perspective, combining individual and collective narratives of migration, identity, mythology, and a sense of belonging. The photographer, educator, art director, and explorer of cultures has exhibited her work internationally and has worked on advertising campaigns for major brands.

Generously supported by Thomas N. Tischer, PhD.

Free to GEM members
$10 nonmembers
$5 students

Jasna Bogdanovska
(Macedonian, American,
b. 1978), Kismet, 2011, from the series Limited Infinity, archival pigment print.
© Jasna Bogdanovska

GEORGE
EASTMAN MUSEUM

Proof of COVID-19 vaccination is required for events in the Dryden Theatre

900 East Avenue, Rochester, NY | eastman.org/WYWH