

THE SOCIOLOGY FILM SERIES
PRESENTS A SPECIAL EVENT:
CULTURE & OBJECTIFICATION
IN THE SUPER BOWL LIV HALFTIME
SHOW

This timely discussion will focus on the diverse global responses to Shakira and J.Lo's performances during Super Bowl 2020 on February 2nd.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 2020
COLLEGE HOUR - 12:00PM-1:00PM
MCC'S DOWNTOWN CAMPUS - ROOM #352

DISCUSSANTS:

PROFESSORS, SUSAN BENDER (SPEECH COMMUNICATIONS), MARISOL GALARZA-RUIZ (WORLD LANGUAGES AND CULTURES), & CHRISTINE PLUMERI (SOCIOLOGY)

As always, the Sociology Film Series is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. This event is response by the Department of Anthropology/History/Political Science/Sociology, the Department of Visual and Performing Arts, the Department of World Languages & Cultures, MCC's Spanish Club, MCC's Office of Student Rights & Responsibilities, RESTORE Sexual Assault Services and Mentors in Violence Prevention at MCC (MVP-MCC). Please direct any questions to Christine Plumeri, x6185 or cplumeri@monroecc.edu