

Presenting

A New Initiative

Women of Excellence

A student scholarship Initiative for historically under-represented student populations:

Students will have a chance to benefit from all of the following resources:

- Leadership skills and professional development
- Communicate with others on issues that women deal with everyday
- Academic Support and job readiness
- Involved with Community Engagement
- Attend workshops and learn about information from employers
- Earn scholarship funds to help financially
- Health and Wellness techniques while staying mentally well
- Gain Professional Development skills
- Get educated on Financial literacy and tools for success
- Receive a Certificate of Leadership & Professional Achievement

Want to know more or join this group?

Stop in the PRISM Multicultural Center (1-108) Monday-Friday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. or e-mail Shirley Batistta-Provost at Sprovost@monroecc.edu for an appointment.

“The best way to predict the future is to create it”.