Scholarship for Indigenous Native & Alaskan Students

THE PRISM MULTICULTURAL CENTER is proud to introduce The Indigenous Peoples' Initiative for students attending Monroe Community College. As part of our overall purpose, we are proud to provide programs and services that support and retain students from all ethnic and cultural backgrounds.

Monroe Community College's SPINAS program provides academic and out of the classroom support and resources to address the needs of Native American students at the college.

We offer:

- Academic and career advisement
- Help with Federal and State financial aid
- Connections to Native resources
- Native American educational scholarship ranging from $1,000.00 to $3,000.00 a semester
- Educational speakers who identify and speak to the needs of Indigenous Americans
- Meet and greet socials and so much more

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Any student who:

- Self-identifies as an American Indian or Alaskan Native
- Is enrolled at Monroe Community College as a full-time or part-time student
- Participates in events or in a leadership position or program at MCC, local college and/or Native American Community
