

Stephen Wise is a seasoned criminal justice administrator that has been successful in a variety of professional roles throughout his 30 year career. He is currently director of Campus Safety at SUNY Genesee Community College.

Wise holds a Master's Degree in Criminal Justice Administration from Keuka College, Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice from The SUNY College at Brockport and he attended Monroe Community College. He is also a graduate of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Virginia.

He began his career at the Greece Police Department as a dispatcher, held all road patrol and investigative positions including undercover narcotics work and crisis negotiations. Wise was promoted to Lieutenant in 2003 and was assigned to the Department's Administrative Bureau where he had oversight of accreditation, training, hiring, and purchasing under a $3 million budget. Later, Wise was assigned command of the Detective Bureau, as well.

Upon retirement from the police department, Wise lectured at SUNY Brockport in the Criminal Justice Department and became security director for a local K-12 district.

Wise was appointed the director of Campus Safety at Genesee Community College in 2013. At GCC, he implemented accreditation compliant protocols and a complete re-write of the College's emergency plan. He is the College's chief Title IX investigator, a key member of the behavioral assessment team and authors the Clery-mandated Annual Security Report. Wise also supervises a staff of certified Peace Officers and Security Officers at GCC.

Wise is a member of the International Association of Police Chiefs, International Association of College Law Enforcement Officers, and founding board member for the NYS Association for Hostage Negotiators. He is an active member of the SUNY Community College Public Safety Administrators Association, and the Rochester Area Campus Safety Directors group.
