

human books

Everyone has a story. Who will you check out? What will you ask?

MCC's
Downtown
Campus
(2nd floor)
Wednesday,
April 18,
10:30 a.m. to
2:30 p.m.

What was it like living in a refugee camp for 8 years?

What does Jamaican cuisine have to do with the slave resistance?

How did you become 1 of only 5 black librarians in the Monroe County Library System?

How do you feel
when someone calls
you a "little person"?

What are the challenges of being an undocumented immigrant and a DACA student?

What drives a biker
to become a protector
of abused children?

What led you down
the path to becoming a Poet?

Challenge stereotypes and prejudices by engaging with members of the MCC and greater Rochester community. Borrow a Human Book for a 30-minute conversation.

Library Services

MONROE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

For information about all the "Human Books" go to: libguides.monroecc.edu/humanbooks