MCC Information Technology Security Policy

Executive Summary of Feedback Received from the Policy Portal

One comment was received in the policy portal during the Information Technology Security Policy comment period.

The question received was about the allowed devices for remote data access.

Administrative Response:

The Information Technology Security Policy does not address devices used to access data remotely.