

The proposed changes were meant to reflect the realities of our current constituency and streamline language. Since the By-Laws don't speak to the rights and privileges of non-voting members, beyond listing who can be a non-voting member, non-voting member privileges are no different to privileges afforded to guests. This makes the non-voting member definition superfluous – hence the reason for its deletion.