

MCC FALL 2021 DELIBERATIVE DIALOGUE SERIES

9/29
1145am-
100pm
[Register
Here!](#)

HEALTH CARE: HOW CAN WE BRING COSTS DOWN WHILE GETTING THE CARE WE NEED?

Whether it is medical bills or prescription drug costs, Americans are concerned about the future of quality affordable health care in the U.S. Join us as we deliberate over options that emphasize ensuring health care for all, improving the current system, and freeing people to make individual choices.

10/21
1230pm-
145pm
[Register
Here!](#)

VOTING: HOW SHOULD WE IMPROVE AND SAFEGUARD OUR ELECTIONS?

Americans are concerned about their elections. They worry about election interference, election integrity, and restrictions on access to voting. Join us as we deliberate over options that emphasize improving voter turnout, securing elections, and making voting fairer and more inclusive.

11/30
1230pm-
145pm
[Register
Here!](#)

FREE SPEECH AND THE INCLUSIVE CAMPUS: HOW DO WE FOSTER THE CAMPUS COMMUNITY WE WANT?

Americans are concerned about the balance between speech and student well-being on college campuses. How do we create an environment that reflects our core values? Join us as we deliberate over options that emphasize student well-being, intellectual curiosity, and the ideals of free expression.

*Department of Anthropology,
History, Political Science, and Sociology*

All Dialogues Take Place on Zoom