

A Fun-Filled Educational and Entertaining Week for Everyone Celebrating Deaf Heritage and American Sign Language (ASL)!

Deaf Awareness Week 2006

Celebrating & Cherishing Our Deaf Culture

Kick Off
Sunday, September 24, 2006

Memorial Art Gallery
12:30 to 4:30 pm

FREE Admission!

Refreshments
Opening Remarks
Proclamations
Awards Ceremony

Keynote Address:
"Celebrating OUR Past and Creating OUR Future"
Thomas K. Holcomb, Ph D.
Professor, Deaf Studies
Ohlone College

For More Information:

www.rochesterdeafclub.com/daw

Or contact us at:

RDAW2006@yahoo.com

All events are ASL/Voice Interpreted.

To request Deaf-Blind Interpreters, Braille, or Large Print, contact DAW
by September 1, 2006

DAW Highlights Include:

- Workshops
- Youth Activities
- Memorial Art Gallery Tour
- Genesee Country Village & Museum
- William "Dummy" Hoy Baseball Classic
- Closing Ceremonies at Rochester Recreation Club for the Deaf

Sponsored By:

- Rochester Recreation Club for the Deaf (Proud Host of 2006 Deaf Awareness Week)
- Sorenson Communications
- The Community Interpreter Grant
- National Technical Institute for the Deaf
- Sprint
- New York Relay Service
- State Farm Insurance
- Monroe Community College
- Empire State College

