NEW BUSINESS

Upcoming Events

- Rochester Police Chief David Moore – September 22, 12-1 p.m.
- SEGA Program Planning Meetings – July 28 and August 6, 11-4 p.m.
- Fall Ball – Tentatively November 19, possible collaboration with CAB.

Event Giveaways

- Promotional T-shirts will be purchased and given away at events and orientations. White T-shirts will have the SEGA logo and “Raising The Bar” imprinted. SEGA members who participate in orientations may receive T-shirts to wear as uniforms.

SEGA T-shirts

- Black T-shirts will feature the “Super SEGA” design.

Video Camera

- Will be purchased to record events.

Campus News

- All SEGA members will be responsible for gathering information to ensure DCC news is relayed to the MCC community.
- The Monroe Doctrine, MCC Tribune, and WMCC–The Fuse will be utilized.

Civic Engagements

- Possible activities include Shadow Day with pre-collegiate students on November 11, serving meals at the Salvation Army on a Sunday morning, and visiting residents at the Episcopal Home on a Saturday.

Wellness

- Blood Drives are tentatively scheduled for October 27, February 9, and May 4; an additional fall semester date will be looked into. Mr. Wilson requested SEGA’s assistance with the drives, especially in promoting them to ensure successful turnouts.
- Ms. Ginevra will work with Tracey Britton on various health fairs scheduled throughout the year.
- The following were identified as preferred causes for fundraising activities: diabetes, breast cancer, HIV/AIDS, violence prevention, and disabled veterans.

SGA – Christopher Hollander

- SUNY Student Assembly Conference – October 29-31 in Syracuse. Mr. Hollander will represent MCC and four other community colleges in the 2010-11 SUNY Student Assembly.
- MCC will participate in the July 17 Pride Parade.
- Wancarlos Pabon-Sanchez has been appointed Inter-Campus Liaison.
- MCC has decided to postpone implementing the new health insurance coverage for students and instead hold further discussions.

Advisor – Lisa Wallace

- Training for SEGA members will follow today’s meeting in the new Student Leadership Office, room 4-139.

The meeting adjourned at 2:04 p.m.
