

Applying for Financial Aid

The easy way to complete the self-explanatory federal aid application (FAFSA) and the New York state aid application (TAP) for the 2013-2014 academic year:

1. Apply for federal aid at www.fafsa.gov
2. Apply for NY state aid at www.hesc.ny.gov
3. Have the following documents to complete the application(s) if applicable:
 - Student's 2012 Federal and New York State Tax Return
 - If you are a dependent student, Parents' 2012 Federal and New York State Tax Return if you are under 22 years of age.
 - You need to know the total amount of untaxed income received in 2012. If you, your spouse, or your parents (if applicable) received any untaxed income during 2012, such as child support you need report it in the financial aid application.

Fill out your FAFSA with a careful eye for detail. An error could delay the application process and it could take many weeks to process your financial aid package.

The Expected Family Contribution (EFC) is a number schools use to calculate your financial aid award. The lower your EFC the more financial aid you will receive.
