Academic Advisement Award for Retired Faculty

This award recognizes the continued commitment and dedication of Monroe Community College's finest retired faculty. The recipient of this award has volunteered numerous hours to the success of MCC students through work in the Academic Advisement Center.

“It is brave to be involved.” -Gwendolyn Brooks

Please write a one-page letter of support for the retiree who best demonstrates MCC's commitment to academic advisement.

All letters of nomination/support should be submitted to Harry Merryman, Director of Counseling & Advising, by Friday, May 5, 2006.
