

World Refugee Day: A New Home, A New Life

Featuring the film: Rain in a Dry Land

This documentary film follows two Somali Bantu families through the resettlement process from a refugee camp in Kenya through their first 18 months in America.

Following the film there will be a panel discussion with refugees and service providers.

Wednesday, June 20, 2007

6:45 p.m.

R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center

Forum, Building 3-130

Free and Open to the Public

Free Parking Available in Lot M

Sponsored by Rochester Committee on Refugee Resettlement in cooperation with Monroe Community College Holocaust Genocide Studies Project, Rochester Institute of Technology Department of Sociology and Anthropology, Rochester City School District Department of Bilingual, ESOL & LEAP; Catholic Family Center.

Holocaust
Genocide
Studies
Project

R·I·T