

Religious Diversity Series

What's faith got to do with anything? Join us for civil conversations on faith traditions from here and around the world. COME, LEARN something, ASK something, EXPAND your awareness and possibly your understanding of diverse religious traditions.

WHY I WEAR A HIJAB

Wednesday, February 15, 2017 // 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1-108

Several Muslim women from Monroe Community College will speak about their religious and cultural tradition of wearing the headscarf referred to as hijab.

THE HOLY COW

Monday, March 6, 2017 // 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1-108

An introduction to Hinduism and beliefs. Sanjay Mathur, the former President of the Hindu Temple of Rochester, New York, will lead this discussion.

WHAT IS THE TALMUD?

Wednesday, March 22, 2017 // 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1-108

This exploration of Judaism will be led by Rabbi Drorah Setel of Temple Emanu-El in Rochester, NY.

WALK TOWARDS THE MESS

Wednesday, March 29 // 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1-108

Sponsored by Campus Ambassadors & Facilitated by Josh Horn, Northridge Church. Look beyond the news headlines to explore the impact that Christians have, both locally and around the world.

MUSLIM PRAYER/PROSTRATIONS

Monday, April 3, 2017 // 12:00 pm -1:00 pm

PRISM Multicultural Center, Building 1-108

Join MCC's Chemistry Professor Azwana Sadique in a dynamic and informative discussion about Muslim prayer.

RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY BUS TOUR

Saturday, April 8, 2017 // Leaving 9:45 am from MCC

and return to campus at 4:00 pm

This tour includes visits to three local centers of religious activity: The Hindu Temple of Rochester, the Temple EmanuEl, and the Hamidiye Mosque/Islamic Cultural Center of Rochester. Please contact Audra Dion, International Counselor for more information at adion@monroec.edu or call 292-3172.

WEEK OF REMEMBRANCE & COMPASSION

April 24th - April 28th

Tibetan Buddhist Monks from the Namgyal Monastery in Ithaca, NY will be in the R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center Atrium creating a traditional Sand Painting surrounded by portraits of Local Holocaust Survivors for Holocaust Remembrance week (Yom HaShoah). Many meaningful programs will be a part of this week of remembrance and compassion.