

Reporter CARLET CLEARE Speaks With Students

MCC is proud to invite Carlet Cleare to talk about her experience as a journalist and reporter for 13WHAM News. Carlet Cleare joined the 13WHAM News and FOX Rochester team as a reporter in October 2014. She is a Rochester native who is eager to tell compelling stories and meaningful reports about a community she loves. We are also proud to say that Carlet is also a graduate of Monroe Community College.

Previously, Carlet worked at WXXI Public Broadcasting Council as a Public Affairs Reporter/Producer. She wrote and produced on-air and on-mic stories on AM 1370 during Morning Edition and All Things Considered, as well as weekly news magazine Need to Know. Carlet also produced documentary-style pieces: Already Out: What it's like Coming of Age as a LGBT Teen and Response to Murder; The Daniel Davis Story, which was a New York Emmy Award Nominee.

Carlet is a graduate of Monroe Community College and St. John Fisher College, with a degree in Communication and Journalism. She interned at the Insider Magazine at the Democrat and Chronicle as well as WXXI. Carlet is also a member of the Rochester Association of Black Journalists. Carlet has served as a Master Barber for the past two decades. She took her passion for journalism and people and wrote about the "happenings" of the barbershop experience with a community blog for the Democrat and Chronicle. After listening to inspiring, thought-provoking and crushing conversations, she decided to trade-in her clippers and shears for a note pad and pen to become a full time reporter.

Carlet is truly a go-getter and lives an exciting life. She has acted and performed in local theatrical productions that included Black Girls' Anthem and Intrepid at GEVA Theater Nextstage.
