

2016 Scholars' Day Scholarship Recipients

First Place Awards, $1,600 each:

John Rodman: Design and Application of Continuously Variable (Centrifugal) Transmissions

Tina Murty: Diabetes and African Americans: Cultural Delusions and Economic Injustice

Jeana Clocksin: A Spiritual Nation: The Origins, Evolution and Impact of Religion in Haiti

John Andosca, John Rodman, Austin Goodwin, Luke Petrison: Low Cost Quadcopter Using Recycled Materials

Shane Michtavy: Shane Michtavy Integration of Software for Diffraction and a Potentiostat

Second Place Awards, $1,200 each:

Vincent Polimeni: On the Extinction of Homo neanderthalensis and the Conundrum of Their Disappearance

Amanda DiBenedetto: Well Kept Secrets of Politicians and the Koch Brothers: Unfair Funding of Urban Schools

Kenneth Orion Adams, Jason Cook, Jacob Davis, Zachariah Fahsi: Robotics: Engineering Students' Introduction to Design Fabrication and Testing

Alicia Wyble: Restorative Practice: Influencing Students Academically, Socially, and Emotionally

Carly Cook: Notice of Proposed Rule Making to the Common Rule: Too Much Responsibility Given to Investigators

Third Place Awards, $900 each*:

Timothy Van Slyke: Eco-Friendly Circuit Boards: Transitions in Engineering

Laela Matteson: The Rochester Neighborhood Oral History Project: Cross-campus Collaboration Keeps History Relevant

Olivia Baker, Jeffrey Capomaccio, Corrin Collins, Diana Kozlyuk: pH Tide: Does it Have an Effect on Body Physiology?

Jordan Black*: Free Play and the Decreasing Resiliency of Children in the United States

Samantha Huerta*: The Road to Nowhere: How Urban Schools Are Failing Students and Benefiting the Prison Industrial Complex

Mary F Sufлита, Jamie Kirkpatrick, Jasmine Williams*: The Efficacy of Tongue Brushes and the Effects on the Oral Cavity

Emma VanHise, Jordan Black, Meltem Otunctemur*: With Child: The Surrogacy Industry in India

* Ties for 3rd place (within a category) were granted $750 each.