

Noche Latina en MCC

A Latino Night at MCC

Tuesday, April 29

5:00 - 7:00 p.m.

Warshof Conference Center
R. Thomas Flynn Campus Center
Monroe A - Room 3-205
Parking in Lot M

5:00-5:30 pm

Presentation: Voluntourism in Latin America

How you can help people and learn about other cultures and languages. Professor Steven Farrington will discuss volunteer trips to the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua in which he practiced Spanish, worked side-by-side with locals and other volunteers, and had a meaningful experience along with some fun.

5:30-5:45 pm

Presentation: Panamanian Tembleques by Evelyn Cassano

(Tembleques are hair ornaments and an important part of Panamanian traditional dress.)

5:45-6:30 pm

Latin American Folk Dances

Grupo Cultural Latinos en Rochester, NY and Avenue D Latino Dance Group

6:30-7:00 pm

Merengue and Cumbia Dance Lessons

Sponsored by:

- World Languages & Cultures Department
- The Spanish Club,
- Global Union International Students Organization

Monroe Community College

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK