

Spring 2017 Flexible Pace Mathematics (MTH) Courses Registration Process

Registration for flexible pace MTH 098, MTH 099, and MTH 104 courses will be different this spring for students in face to face sections. Online sections will work as they have in the past. The new plan will make a wider variety of times available for all students who wish to take flexible pace mathematics courses. This will allow students who finish one MTH course to move into the next course in the sequence without changing times or instructors.

Face to face flexible pace MTH course sections will have section numbers starting with F (e.g. F01) at Brighton, and ending with F at Damon (e.g. C1F). Students who wish to take a face to face flexible pace section of MTH 098 or MTH 104 will also need to sign up for a conference hour to fill the requisite number of credits. This new scheme will have students from all of the flexible pace Mathematics Department courses, from MTH 096 through MTH 104, mixed together in the same rooms. Conferences will have a mix of MTH 098 and MTH 104 students.
