

Homeland Security Management Institute (HSMI) presents
“Preparing Now to Care for Your Pets During Emergencies”

This one night training is being offered twice. You can sign up for either date.

Tuesday April 30th and Wednesday May 29th

6:00 – 8:30 pm

No cost to attend

To register please complete the registration form and fax/email to Glenn Greibus at (585) 753-3785 or ggreibus@monroecc.edu

The training will be held at Lollypop Farm, the Humane Society of Greater Rochester
99 Victor Rd.
Fairport, NY 14450

The Homeland Security Management Institute (HSMI) is co-sponsoring two training sessions with the Monroe County Office of Emergency Management and Lollypop Farm, the Humane Society of Greater Rochester on what to do with your animals in a disaster situation. Topics will include: Preparedness steps for pets, service animals, exotic pets and farm animals; Sheltering in Place versus Evacuation – How to Plan and What to Expect; An introduction to Pet First Aid; an Overview of Programs and Activities at Lollypop Farm.

There will be limited seating for each session. American Sign Language (ASL) interpreting services will be made available as needed.

