SPEAK TO SEGA

- Mr. Simmons stated that Men of Excellence Club would like to collaborate with SEGA on the October 24 Costume Contest. The cost of the event – $300 for prizes, emcee and candy – would be split evenly between the two groups at $150 each. A motion was made by Ms. Jeffers and seconded by Ms. Smith to approve collaborating on the event. Motion approved.
- Mr. Simmons stated that Men of Excellence Club would like SEGA's support of their November 29 Fashion Show by helping to promote it. A motion was made by Ms. Ginevra and seconded by Ms. Thompson to approve supporting the event. Motion approved.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Past Events

- MCC Public Safety Director David Moore on September 28 was reviewed.

Upcoming Events

- Details were discussed for Poetry Day on October 5, which will kick off the Children's Book Drive; the Book Drive will conclude at Open Mic on October 26. Ms. Roth obtained a donation from Tops which can be used as a prize for Poetry Day. The group's consensus was to spend $30 for tote boxes for the Book Drive.

Leadership Retreat

- Information packets have been given to student leaders who are attending the October 14-16 Retreat at Camp Stella Maris.

NEW BUSINESS

SUNY Student Assembly

- Two community college reps are needed for SUNY Student Assembly; one would represent MCC and two other colleges.

ADVISORS' REPORTS

Greg Wilson

- The Blood Drive originally planned for October 12 will be rescheduled.

Ms. Lanzafame

- Would like to help with promotions.

The meeting adjourned at 12:56 p.m.
