INTERSESSION 2011 — NOT JUST FOR MCC STUDENTS

Last year, more than 300 students from MCC and 20 other colleges and universities took Intersession courses. Why not join them!

- complete a course that won't fit your Fall or Spring schedule
 - study a subject intensively, for a short period of time
 - reduce credit load during Spring or Fall semester
 - complete degree requirements
- Intersession courses meet daily, giving you the opportunity to complete a full semester course in a short time frame. It's a great way to:

"I liked it. You learn so much in a short time."
 "The idea of studying one subject in depth is very appealing and more conducive to my learning style."
 "Because the course lasted just one week, I was able to retain information easier and apply it the next day."
 "With only one class to worry about, I had more time to study."
 "Three weeks and you're done!"
 "Great way to complete core requirements;"

"It was more laid back, but I still learned just as much. The class size was smaller, better for learning and everyone wanted to be here;"
 "I think the whole school year should be set up like this!"

SOME QUOTES FROM INTERSESSION STUDENTS

Contact the Counseling Center at (585) 292-2030 (current students) or the Admissions Office (new students) at (585) 292-2200 or Registration & Records (585) 292-2300.

PROBLEMS OR QUESTIONS?

How many classes can I take during Intersession?
 Since classes are intensive and meet for several hours each morning or evening, students usually take just one class. Some students can manage two classes, especially if one of the classes is a one- or two-credit course.

REGISTER TODAY!
 INTERSESSION CLASSES START
