Highlight Country: Argentina

Please join us for MCC's Hispanic Heritage Month opening ceremony. This cultural celebration will feature MCC Trustee Grace Tillinghast speaking about her home country Argentina followed by tango performers from Flower City Tango.

Grace Tillinghast

Native of Argentina and former college professor and former Eastman Kodak Company executive, and Co-Owner of The Battery, baseball and softball training facility. Trustee Tillinghast is Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees at Monroe Community College. Mrs. Tillinghast has been recognized by many organizations for her commitment to her adopted community.

Tango Performance

Agustin "Gus" Ramos is the artistic director and head instructor of Flower City Tango. Listening to tango all his life, Agustin has found his true calling to dance the tango. For the past 15 years, he has studied with numerous instructors from Argentina and has taught locally for the past twelve years, both group classes and private lessons.
