Opportunities for Placing Students in ENG 101

ENG 101
& 100-level literature courses

76 ELA Regents

C or better: ESL 201

Accuplacer:
RC 81+
SS 65+

RC 71-80.9
SS 95+
ONLY If student CO-ENROLLS in Required REA 100.

TRS 105/200 Placement Challenge – see ENG Dept Chair No challenge for TRS 100 **

C or better: Transferred ENG 100 or 200 from another college

C or better:
TRS 105 & REA 100
OR TRS 200

500 SAT or 21 ACT
 Please advise students that taking a developmental class is a placement that is often the most pedagogically sound path forward. This challenge option is only for students who, after thorough advising, might be able to point higher than their placement test. VERY few students succeed in a challenge, so sending students to a department seeking an "override" can be misleading.

Created by Monroe Community College's English & Philosophy Department, Spring 2016
rev. 4.5.16

Opportunities for Placing Students into ENG 200 Lit Courses
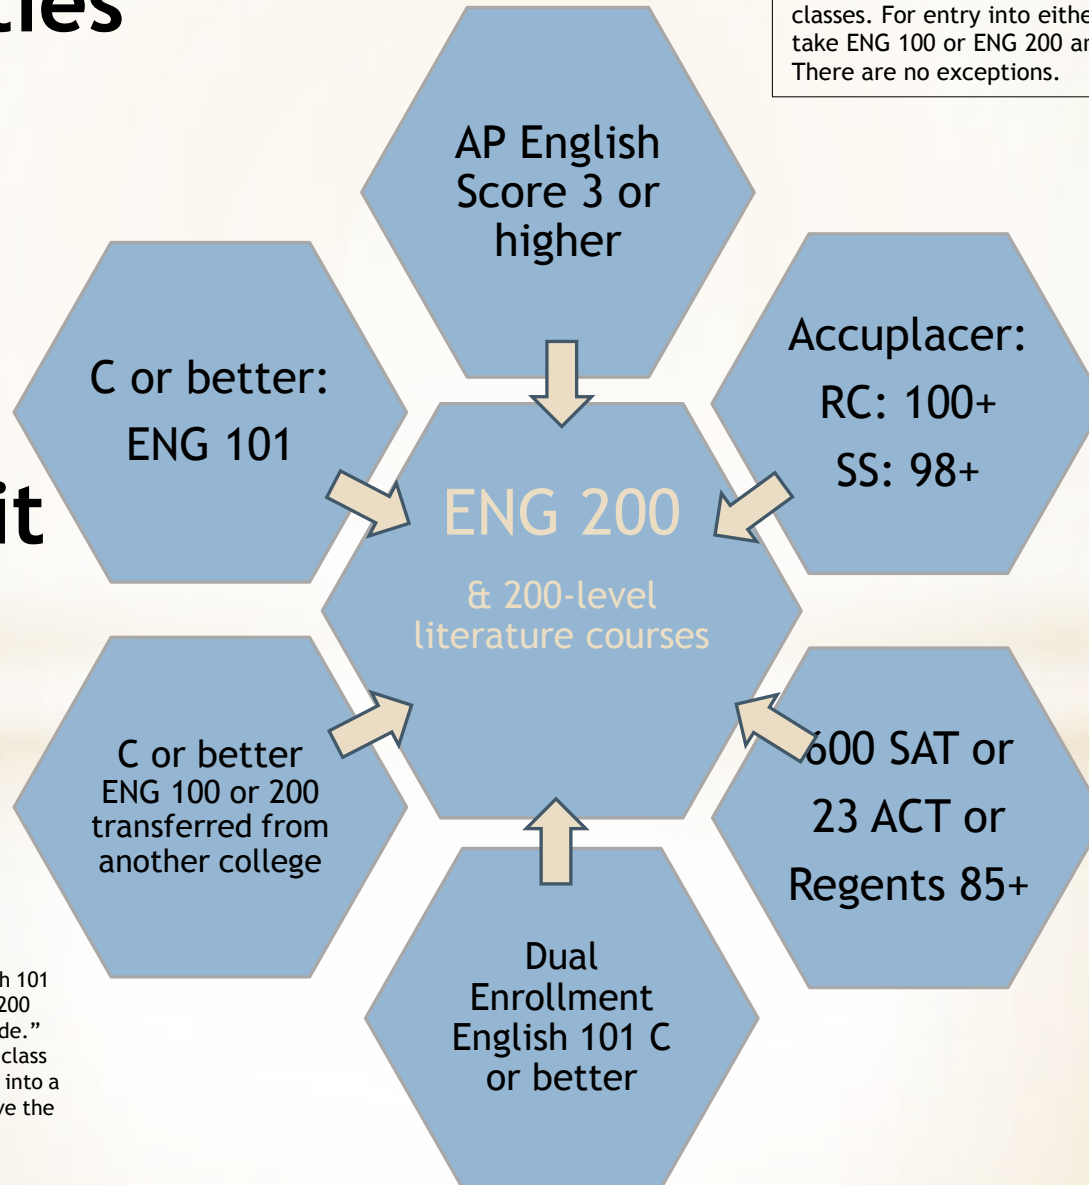

ENG 250: Professional Communication & ENG 251: Technical Communication are separate classes. For entry into either course, students MUST take ENG 100 or ENG 200 and obtain a C or better. There are no exceptions.

AP English Score 3 or higher

C or better: ENG 101

Accuplacer: RC: 100+ SS: 98+

ENG 200
& 200-level literature courses

C or better ENG 100 or 200 transferred from another college

600 SAT or 23 ACT or Regents 85+

Dual Enrollment English 101 C or better

Please advise students that a C- in English 101 is not acceptable as a prerequisite for a 200 level literature class. There is no "override." Students who receive a C- must take the class over again and earn a C in order to move into a 200 level literature class so they may have the best chance at success.