PASSWORDS

are like socks.

You should change them often.

Leaving your password unchanged for long periods of time makes you more vulnerable to attacks. It is also a good idea to use different passwords for different services rather than have one password for all your accounts.

This cyber-security tip provided by:

MCC Communications & Network Services
MONROE COMMUNITY COLLEGE