

“It was 30 years ago today....”

On The 30TH Anniversary Of His Death, Please Join Us
For A Special Sociology Film Series Event:
A Screening of “The John Lennon Assassination” and A CD Listening & Learning Event

Beloved Beatle and peace activist, John Lennon, was gunned down outside of his New York City home on December 30, 1980, a day some may never forget; by Mark David Chapman, a man some may never forgive. In commemoration, this very special Sociology Film Series will feature the 1996 documentary, The Assassination of John Lennon. “In this comprehensive chronicle, American Justice revisits the Lennon tragedy through interviews – including a rare tape interview with Chapman” - (from DVD jacket), convicted of Lennon’s murder and serving life in prison in Attica State Prison.

Following the film, we will discuss the story-line lyrics and music of “Stay Human” (2001), a groundbreaking CD by Michael Franti & Spearhead that is set to the fictitious story of Sister Fatimah, a community activist on death row for a murder she did not commit. We will explore issues of capital punishment, incarceration, racism, sexism, homophobia, media literacy & more.

DATE: Wednesday, December 8, 2010
TIME: 3:00pm – 6:00pm (film/discussion followed by CD/discussion)
PLACE: The Community Room #4193 – Damon City Campus
DISCUSSANTS: Dina Giovanelli, Bethany Gizzi and Christine Plumeri, AHPS

Food and refreshments will be served and we will have information about our Diversity & Community Studies degree, Mentors in Violence Prevention (MVP-MCC) and other course offerings in Sociology! As always, the Sociology Film Series is free and open to the public. This event is sponsored by the Department of Anthropology/History/Political Science/Sociology, MVP-MCC, Office of the Dean of Liberal Arts, the DCC Campus Center and Student Events & Governance (SEGA).

Questions? Contact Christine Plumeri, 262-1768 , cplumeri@monroecc.edu

In the spirit of the season, we will be collecting gently-worn shoes for Soles4Souls.org, which facilitates the donations of footwear to aid the hurting worldwide and monetary donations for DCC’s new Veterans’ Club!
