AAWCC Scholarship for NILD Leaders Workshop

Spring 2009

The national board for the American Association for Women in Community Colleges supports the advancement of community college women into leadership positions. As a commitment to that mission the Board will award a scholarship to a national AAWCC member who works at a community college to attend NILD Leaders 2009. The AAWCC Scholarship for NILD Leaders will include registration and travel expenses up to a total of $3000. The following description about the Leaders Program is taken directly from the NILD webpage:

The Leaders Program is perfect for administrative and faculty women who want to explore their role in leadership. Programs focus on crystallizing the participant's identity, fine-tuning skills, identifying leadership and community college issues, and developing personal confidence.

The Program contains the important components of a pragmatic project pertinent to institution and the creation of a long-lasting relationship with a mentor.

For more information about the NILD Leaders Program please visit their website:

Selection of the scholarship recipient for attendance at a 2009 NILD Leaders Workshop will be based on the individual's commitment to AAWCC, leadership plans, and the endorsement of a mentor from their home institution. Additional pages can be used to complete the application, but the limit is a total of four pages!

The deadline for the receipt of scholarship applications is November 4, 2008. The recipient of the MCC-AAWCC Scholarship for NILD Leaders will be notified by October 30, 2008. All applications should be sent to your divisional vice president by Noon on October 24, 2008:
