ADVISORS REPORT

Ms. Wallace congratulates Ms. Piros on her new position as Vice President of Events. To all SEGA members that went to the retreat on September 27th, it was wonderful to spend the weekend with you. Ms. Wallace informed the SEGA team to utilize Public Safety in addressing students about their inappropriate behavior in the 4th floor lounge. Ms. Wallace was asked by Ginny Geer-Mentry, Director of Monroe Community College Association, Inc. to have the SEGA team promote "Sustainability Day" on October 23rd at the Damon Campus.

Dr. Humphrey is very pleased and impressed with the SEGA team's dedication and hard work.

The meeting adjourned at 1:10pm.
